

Enough is enough. The reason people of the United States choose a private provider is quite simple. FREEDOM OF SPEECH.
So where is it written that you can violate the constitution of the United States.
Could it be that you provide a quality service? NOT .
So I see actions at law coming your way.